++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Sunny spells and isolated showers Thursday. Cold overnight.

Today:
Cold, largely sunny start, before cloud develops through the morning. Feeling rather cool, with an onshore breeze, and the chance of a few showers. These perhaps locally heavy during the afternoon. Feeling warmer at times, with some sunny spells. Maximum temperature 11 deg C (52 deg F).

Tonight:
Dry, with any patchy cloud fading away. Feeling cold beneath the clearing skies with frost and patchy mist or fog possible by dawn. Minimum temperature -2 deg C (28 deg F).

Friday:
Another cold and sunny start, once early mist and fog lifts. Some fair weather cloud then likely to develop, however it will likely stay dry, with warm sunny spells. Maximum temperature 12 deg C (54 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Dry with sunny spells and variable cloud through the weekend and Monday. Remaining cold overnight, with frost and fog patches. Daytime temperatures likely near normal for April.
